Accessibility Statement

This accessibility statement applies to www.wolfhampcote-pc.gov.uk

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.2 AA standard.

We are working to improve the accessibility of the website and to ensure that new content and features are made as accessible as reasonably possible.

What we are doing

We are taking steps to improve the accessibility of our website, including:

- using clear and simple language where possible
- ensuring that website pages can be navigated using a keyboard
- providing appropriate alternative text for images where required
- ensuring that links and headings are clearly identified
- considering accessibility when adding new documents and content
- responding to requests for information in an accessible alternative format.

Content that may not be fully accessible

Some documents and content on the website may not be fully accessible.

In particular, some PDF documents or other documents produced before 23 September 2018 may not meet current accessibility standards. Certain types of content are exempt from the accessibility regulations.

Where a document or other content is not accessible, we will consider whether an accessible alternative can reasonably be provided.

Requesting an accessible format

If you need information from this website in a different format, such as an accessible electronic document, large print or another format, please contact us.

Email: clerk@wolfhampcote-pc.gov.uk

Telephone: 077349 627632

Please tell us:

- the information you need
- the format you require
- how you would prefer us to provide it.

We will consider your request and respond within a reasonable period.

Reporting accessibility problems

If you find any problems with the accessibility of this website, please contact us using the details above.

We welcome feedback about the accessibility of our website and will consider requests for improvements.

Enforcement procedure

If you contact us about an accessibility problem and you are not satisfied with our response, you can seek further advice from the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

Review of this statement

We will review this accessibility statement regularly and whenever significant changes are made to the website.

This statement was prepared on September 2026.

It was last reviewed on November 2026.
